Organization and Committee Reports:

Areas of Attention:

Community Building:

Faith Formation:

Mary Ann – First Communion – Will take place on Sept. 13th, at noon in the church in Oakfield. There are 8 students who will receive the sacrament. Immediate family and grandparents are invited to attend. Practice will take place at 11 am, the Saturday before.

Fall Faith Formation plans – We received guidelines from the Diocese for in person classes. The requirements are extensive: Temperature taking, quarantine rooms, extensive sanitizing and social distancing requirements the same as in schools. We do not have the space or resources to accomplish these requirements, so we have decided to switch to all home schooling where parents are the primary teachers. Students will receive hard copies of lessons and on-line instruction is available to them. Assessments are required after each lesson and after the quarter. We plan on providing incentive awards. Fees remain the same. In the spring, First Reconciliation with First Communion will be held with 7 students. Confirmation on August 2nd went well.

Stewardship:

Building and Grounds – Reg – Elba – The lighting in the church has been updated with LED bulbs. The lower branches of the evergreen trees on the south and west sides of the property were trimmed and the debris removed. This facilitates mowing in those areas. Bushes adjacent to the church and the courtyard were also trimmed. Oakfield – The sink in the social hall kitchen was repaired, with the sink now secured to the wall and the drain renewed. There are plans for providing a face lift to the deck behind the rectory. This includes removing the metal gazebo, power washing and staining the deck. Work on the deck will be done by a professional. The gazebo is in good condition and could be sold or given in return for a donation.

Our parish is blessed in that most of our routine maintenance is accomplished by a small group of willing volunteers who give generously of their time, labor, and resources. New volunteers always are welcome.

Old Business: Weekend Masses

Extend contract for tent – Father would like to extend the contract for the tent until October 5th. Everything has been going well, we have been blessed with great weather, and it would provide additional space and convenience to continue throughout September. Attendance last weekend was about 45 on Sat., 60 at 8 am, and 50 at 10 am. Reg reported that the cost would be $1045. After much discussion, motion by Reg, seconded by Steve to extend the contract. Motion carried with 7 votes for, 2 against, and 1 abstention.

All Masses in church on weekends in Oakfield – Because of social distancing requirements, the church in Elba is too small to accommodate enough people, about 16 to 20. Oakfield can handle more. Motion by Linda, seconded by Frank to have all weekend Masses in Oakfield until either regulations change or council meets to consider changes. Motion carried.

Additional planning needed to move into church on weekends – Extensive discussion on need for ushers and greeters to assume different roles, recruiting volunteers, methods of sanitizing pews, doors and other areas, notification of parishioners and ministers. Concerns expressed about managing numbers allowed in the church. Father has volunteered to consider an additional Mass if the need is demonstrated after several weeks. A committee formed to identify and write duties for ministers and bulletin notices includes Reg, Frank, Tom, Steve, and Linda.

Election – Father suggests that council elections should be postponed until spring. Members up for election have agreed to continue until then. Motion by Diane, seconded by Mary Ann to postpone the election. Motion carried.

Online Giving – Deb reported that the questionnaire sent by the Diocese was completed and returned. No additional information available at this time.

Pastor's Comments:

Father reported that the Diocese has asked that a second collection for the people of Lebanon, who have suffered a terrible explosion be taken next weekend. An additional basket will be placed similar to the collection baskets now in use.

Adjournment and Closing Prayer:

The meeting adjourned at 8:50 pm. Father offered the closing prayer.
