THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL: Mark 1:21-28
In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus shows his power and authority over evil. His teachings during Sabbath worship amazes his audience. Jesus teaches as one with authority. In his healing and his teachings, Jesus is fueled by the Holy Spirit and driven by God's love.

EXPLORING THE GOSPEL MESSAGE AS A FAMILY:

This week begins Black History Month, so the class learned about some important black Catholics in America. The class also discussed ways to live Jesus' teachings. As a family, discuss ways your family is living out the Good News of the Gospel in your home.

Call to Vocations

St. Paul recommends a celibate life in this weekend's second reading from 1st Corinthians 7. Even in his time, there were those who decided to forego marriage in order to give themselves entirely in service to God.

Could God be calling you to serve Him in this way? If so, contact Fr. Dave Baker at 716-847-5535, or visit www.buffalovocations.org

Please support the Catholic Charities Appeal 2021 HOPE for All Seasons

As the pandemic continues, the need for contributions continues to grow more now than ever before. With so many of our neighbors out of work and unable to meet their basic needs, many more are turning to Catholic Charities for support. Your generous contributions are invested right back into programs and services such as food pantries, emergency financial assistance, mental health counseling, and more.

If you have contributed in the past, please continue to do so. You might even consider increasing your donation. If you have not done so in the past, now is a perfect time.

The Diocese of Buffalo have made it easier on us due to COVID. If you have given in the past, they are asking that you send your donation directly to their office in Buffalo. If you have not contributed, simply drop off your donation to the parish office or in the weekly collection basket. We will do the necessary steps to send it in for you.

We are so lucky to have such a wonderful parish. We can't wait to get everything back to normal so we can have the events like in the past.

God bless all of you. We pray everyone keeps safe.

Pat Kelly & Elaine Forti
