This week's Gospel: Luke 16:1-31

This Sunday's Gospel challenges us to be selfless and care for others who need help. Jesus tells a story of a poor beggar named Lazarus who lived outside the gates of a Rich Man's house. Lazarus' requests for help were ignored for years. Lazarus finally found comfort in Heaven once he had died. The Rich Man passed away and suffered in Hell. The Rich Man begged Abraham for mercy, just as Lazarus had once begged the Rich Man. Abraham reprimanded the Rich Man for his actions during his lifetime and for not heeding the warnings in Scripture. Jesus reminds us that we have been provided with all of the resources in our lives to understand God's desire for us to serve one another. Take time this week to reflect on steps your family can take to become more aware of the ways you can share God's love with other people.

With so many occurrences taking place in our troubled world today, praying the rosary is a powerful expression of our devotion to Mary.

Recitation of the rosary in our parish takes place on the First Saturday of each month beginning at 4:00 PM.

If anyone is interested in leading or co-leading the rosary, kindly contact Linda Giambrone at: 585-356-5696. Thank you

Lesson 2 • September 25, 2022 • 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Heaven for me is hidden in a little Host where Jesus, my Spouse, is veiled for love.
—Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus (Lisieux)

Some people see the Eucharist as simply a piece of bread that symbolizes the presence of Jesus. Catholics, however, take the word of Jesus seriously—that the host becomes his very Body after the priest pronounces the words, “This is my Body.” Although we will be fully in Jesus’ presence when we reach Heaven, Saint Thérèse reminds us that, each time we receive Holy Communion, it is like being, ever so briefly, in Heaven.
