This Sunday's Gospel: Matthew 25:14-30

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a pointed story about three servants. Their master entrusts them with varying amounts of money. Two of the servants double their money, but fear gets in the way of the third servant. All he can do is preserve what he has. The challenge for all of us is to recognize the gifts we have been given and our responsibility to care for those gifts. That means caring for the world we live in and caring for one another. It also means having the courage to be our best selves.

Please take note:

You really aren't old at age 25, but our refrigerator in the Oakfield church hall certainly is! We purchased it in 1998 and it has performed well during the last 25 years. It has worked long and hard for Men's Group events like the Chicken BBQ and Pancake Breakfasts, for Bereavement Ministry Funeral Luncheons, and for activities of A&R, our Religious Ed program, many parish meetings, etc. But the time has come for it to be retired and replaced. We will be taking a special 2nd collection during the Masses on the weekends of November 19th and 26th to help defray the cost of a new one. We hope to get the new refrigerator purchased and installed before the old one totally quits. Thank you for any contribution you are able to make!

November 19, 2023-33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thanking God by Helping the Poor

This Sunday we observe World Day of the Poor. This coming Thursday is Thanksgiving Day in the United States. It is a good time to consider how richly blessed most of us are in comparison to those people throughout the world who live in dire poverty. As we prepare to thank God for our many blessings, the Church invites us to pray for those who are poor and support Catholic Campaign for Human Development's (CCHD) efforts to "break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families, and communities."

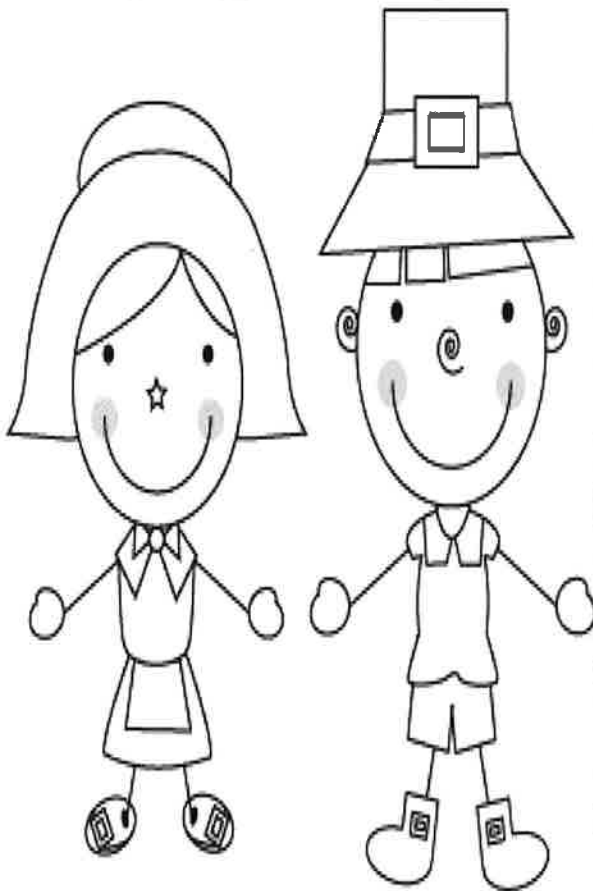

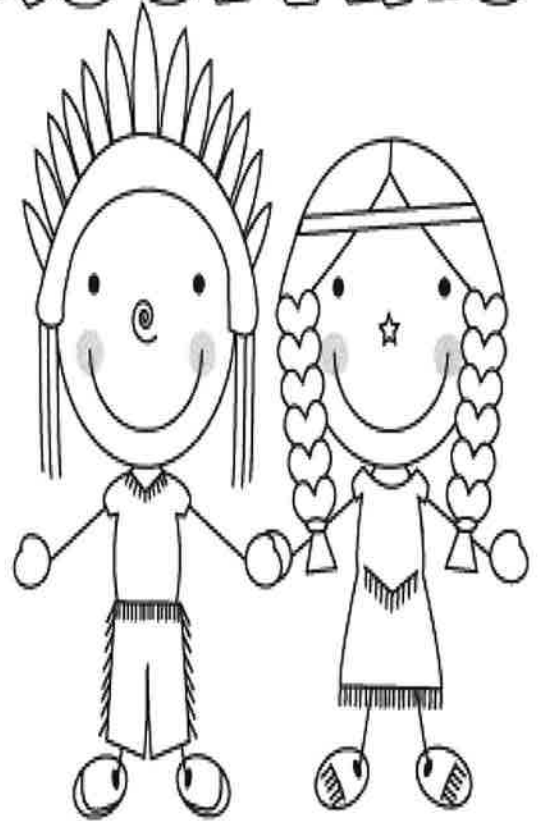

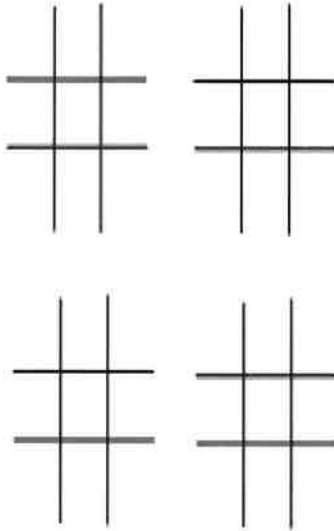

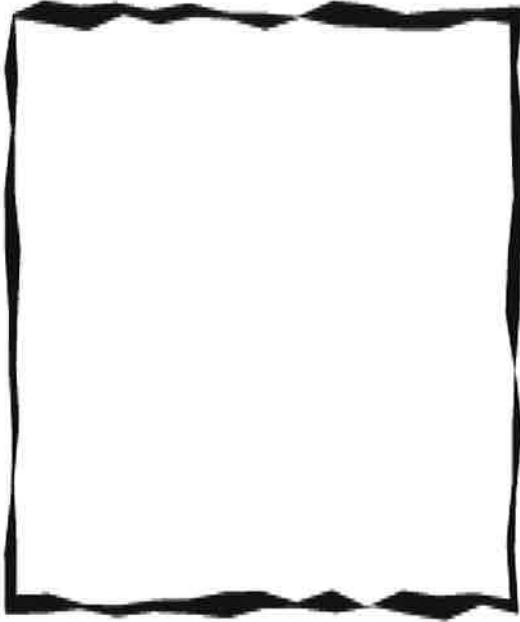

Please consider using the envelope enclosed in your packet.

Thank you for your generosity.
