Call to Vocations Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 4, 2024

"An obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it!" St. Paul didn't want to disappoint the God who had called him into ministry. If you're being called to a Church vocation, contact Fr. Dave Baker at 716-847-5535 or visit buffalovocations.org.

A HUGE THANK YOU FROM FR. TED

Three weeks ago I celebrated my last Mass at St. Padre Pio Parish as you pastor. Even the bad weather brought between 70 and 100 people to celebrate with me.

Thank you to the choir members and Russell Joy for his special Christmas carol on this occasion. Thank you to our Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, and Altar Servers for participating in this special Mass.

Mrs. Eileen Kirkpatrick and Anna Pruski and their teams prepared a very delicious Polish reception.

The Hall was decorated beautifully.

Thank you to the Faith Formation group, Altar & Rosary, Men's Group, Bereavement and many individuals, to may to list, for donations and gifts.

It's been a Blessing to serve this community.

You will be in my heart and prayers always.

This Sunday's Gospel:

Mark 1:29-39

Jesus brings God's life-giving, healing power to the people of Galilee. The gospel portrays Jesus as a man of action who raises up Peter's mother-in-law, heals the sick, and frees the possessed. He also seeks time to pray. We are all called to imitate Jesus' compassion and love for people.

Pray Together

When you complete your conversation about Sunday's Gospel lesson, create a family litany for people who are suffering from illness or who are struggling in life. Let members of the family take turns mentioning the name of a person who is in need. After each name, the family can respond, "Lord, make haste to help them." When the family runs out of names, close by saying the Lord's Prayer together.

Parish Council Meeting
Thursday, February 8th, 7:00pm
Oakfield Site

Rev. Scottston F. Brentwood, O. deM., J.C.L.

Fr. Scott, the Moderator for our Family of Parishes will be in attendance. The format will be an Open Forum, so all parishioners are welcome to attend and participate.

As we begin this Road to Renewal process, it is important for everyone to be informed, participate, and remain open minded.

Honoring and Remembering Loved Ones

Did you know?

Appeal 2024 is our 100th annual Appeal! Following its inception in 1923, Catholic Charities held its first fundraising campaign in 1924, which carried a goal of $262,116. That goal was met and exceeded with a total of $325,808 raised! Today, our annual Appeal looks quite different, including a much larger goal. But the tradition of raising money to help those in need continues. Be part of our historic 100th. Appeal, and give HOPE to those who need it. Give today at ccwny.org/donate or text HOPE4WNY to 44321.

ASH WEDNESDAY MASS TIMES

Ascension Parish 7:30 AM 12:00 PM
Resurrection Parish (St. Joseph's Site) 8:00 AM 7:00 PM
St. Padre Pio (Oakfield) 7:00 PM

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, condolences, messages, thoughts and prayers to myself and my family during Larry's passing. It was very much appreciated!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

In his Communist Manifesto, Carl Marx famously said that for socialism to succeed, property, religion and the family must be destroyed. I ask you to look around. Is this not happening? Archbishop Fulton Sheen said "The refusal to take sides on great moral issues is itself a decision. It is a silent acquiescence to evil. The tragedy of our time is that those who still believe in honesty lack fire and conviction, while those who believe in dishonesty are full of passionate conviction." This was a call to action.

The Lord has been kicked to the curb for far to long. The present chaotic state of our culture and the world are the result. Relativism, secular humanism, hedonism, materialism and the unquenchable thirst for pleasure dominate our world. This is the end of the innocence. The world has forgotten its GOD.

We can help to change this. The Lord loves us. He wants to spend time with us in this busy world. He knows us and our needs better than we do. He wants us to really get to know Him. It's so easy to get caught up in anxieties and business of the world. How can we possibly hear Him.

Spending one hour with our Lord; showing Him that we truly love Him and are putting Him first in our lives can be transforming. It can not only change you, but also the world. If you doubt, remember, with God all things are possible.

It is my goal to organize a weekly Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Ideally, I would like to see it last throughout the day. This would show the Lord our commitment and love for Him. Also, it would allow parishioners the opportunity to spend time with their Lord when they can throughout the day. When I was growing up this was very typical. The churches were always open and people were always there praying.

Please consider volunteering for one hour each week to spend time with the Lord. Pray, read your bible or spiritual books, say your rosary like the Blessed Mother has been imploring us to do since 1917 or just sit in silence. It doesn't matter. You will be their with Him. That's all He wants. He knows this will bring you peace.

If you are called to do this, please fill out this form and return it to the Office or call me. I am thinking about doing this on Thursdays and will try to accommodate everyone's preferred time as much as possible. The most important thing is this, THE EUCHARIST CANNOT BE LEFT ALONE. Therefore if you commit to a time it is paramount that you be there or get somebody to fill in. I am honestly still working through this and I am waiting to see how many people will sign up. Possibly a sub-list or contacting someone in your family? It will get worked out though.

May God Bless you all. Please seriously consider participating. I am absolutely convinced that this is not only necessary for us, but for the world as well.

"In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions. It is these who set up divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. But you, beloved, build yourselves up on your most holy faith; pray in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God; wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life." Rev. Thaddeus M. Bocianowski, Pastor

One Minute Meditations

St. Josephine Bakhita

Born in Darfur, Sudan around 1869, she was kidnapped and sold into slavery. Her captors gave her the name Bakhita, meaning "fortunate." After several years of serving under cruel masters, she was bought by Augusto Michieli. The Michielis sent Bakhita with their daughter to Italy, where Bakhita encountered Catholicism. Overjoyed, she was baptized and took the name Josephine. In 1893, instead of returning to Africa with the Michielis, she entered the Institute of St. Magdalene of Canossa.

The moment of truth

Conversion begins when we accept responsibility for our failures. Lent is an opportunity to stop and take a good look at our lives. Identify all the ways that sin keeps you from living the way Jesus taught us to live. Know that it may take courage to face your shortfalls.

"Apart from the cross, there is no other ladder by which we may get to heaven." St. Rose of Lima

Deepen the connection to Christ during Lent

The key to a fruitful Lent is not to perform miserable penances. A good Lent hinges on encountering Christ in a personal way and letting Him change our hearts and minds. In fact, an effective way to deepen our encounter with Him is through the Eucharist. Consider these suggestions:

"Here I am, Lord. Love me!" Mother Teresa told her sisters to start their chapel time with this bold prayer, "Here I am, Lord. Love me!" No matter whether you are in His Presence for Mass, a holy hour, or a quick visit in front of the Blessed Sacrament, begin with, "Here I am, Lord. Love me!" It's a prayer of faith God delights to answer.

Live for the next Communion.

Every Communion deepens our union with God, strengthens our faith, helps us love more authentically, and immunizes us against future temptations. Each week, renew your resolve to do whatever is needed to receive Jesus well. For example, avoid activity or entertainment that tempts you away from God, and if you sin seriously, immediately go to Confession and start anew.

Invite others to the feast. Invite a friend, neighbor or colleague to Mass or Adoration with you. Pray for priests to stay close to the Eucharist. Most importantly, pray that more people come to faithfully encounter Jesus in the tabernacle.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Why do Catholics have to fast on Ash Wednesday?

Fasting is a practice with Biblical roots, most notably, when Jesus fasted for forty days in the desert. Those in good health, aged 18-59, are required to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. We're permitted one full meal and two smaller meals that together don't equal the full meal. This includes abstaining from meat. Fasting expresses our recognition that we've sinned and desire to make amends. It purifies our hearts and frees them to love God and others well.

Pope Francis's three-point approach to Confession

Instead of dreading seeking the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation (Confession), Pope Francis suggested we look at it as "the Sacrament of the tenderness of God, His way of embracing us." Follow the pope's three-point approach to the Sacrament:

What's my intention? Rather than an obligation, consider the Sacrament a fresh start. Firmly resolve, from this moment forward, to give up the activities or behaviors that separate you from God. The firm resolution to change is key to receiving absolution effectively.

Are there loose ends? Unconfessed sin creates distance between us and God. Make sure you have not withheld mortal sins in prior Confessions, either intentionally or accidentally. If you become aware that you have, confess them and leave the confessional a new man or woman.

Have I completed the assigned penance?

The Sacrament is meant to change us. Purposefully make amends and continue your resolutions to realign your life to the Gospel.

Seeking Reconciliation often and staying in a state of grace helps us become holier people of God.

from Scripture

Mark 9:2-10, Heavenly glory, not worldly power

In Jesus' time, Israel was occupied by the Romans. The Israelites already had a long history of being attacked and conquered by other nations. The Jews dreamed of the day when the Messiah would set them free and make them the victors.

God had set up Moses as liberator and lawgiver, and sent them Elijah, the first of the great prophets who foretold Christ's coming. So when Jesus was transfigured in glory with Moses and Elijah, the Apostles assumed that God was revealing Jesus as the Messiah.

Moses and Elijah spoke with Jesus about His death and Resurrection.

Jesus warned His disciples that He would suffer and die (Mark 8:31). While many Jews were expecting the Messiah to overthrow the Romans and make Himself king, God revealed that the Messiah would save His people by His own death and Resurrection.

The Transfiguration was meant to strengthen the faith of the Apostles and prepare them for the Passion. The Transfiguration reminds us that however difficult this life may be there is unimaginable glory that awaits us in Heaven.

Q & A Why should we "offer it up"?

When tempted to complain about suffering, we may be encouraged to "offer it up" instead. This act of surrender carries incredible spiritual power.

A share in Christ's Cross. Because Jesus is God, His suffering and sacrifice have infinite value. When we unite even our small sufferings to Jesus' suffering, it takes on an infinite value in helping Him to save souls.

Spiritual "strength training." When we offer our sufferings to God, He is able to work on our hearts. Suffering for others helps us to become less selfish and more compassionate, less hard-hearted and more patient, less self-indulgent and more generous. Our hearts emerge more Christ-like, and better able to love.

Prudence is needed. Under most circumstances, encouragement to "offer it up" works as a spiritual discipline for inconveniences or mild suffering. Sometimes, however, remediation or professional help may be needed. God sees the sincerity of our love so we can still offer our suffering to Him and yet take constructive action to remediate whatever is causing the suffering. Be prudent.

Feasts & Celebrations

February 3 – St. Blaise (316). A bishop in fourth-century Turkey, St. Blaise was arrested for being a Christian. On his way to jail, he healed a young boy choking on a fish bone. Refusing to deny his faith, the bishop was martyred.

February 11 – Our Lady of Lourdes (1858). A heavenly lady appeared to St. Bernadette Soubirous, a poor girl from a French village, and a spring with miraculous, healing waters emerged from a nearby cave. The lady revealed herself as the "Immaculate Conception," the Blessed Virgin Mary.

February 14 – Ash Wednesday. The first day of Lent. Ashes of old palms are placed on the forehead as a sign of penance. It's also a day of abstinence from meat and fasting – one regular meal and two small meals that together don't equal a full meal.

February 22 – The Chair of St. Peter. Marking St. Peter's establishment of the Holy See, on this festival we thank God for His Church and pray for its holy preservation.
